

Andrea Allen

This is Andrea's 35th year at NB Power. Most of her career has been in the Human Resources field with the last seven years being the Director, First Nations Affairs and Corporate Ombudsman. The associated work honours her personal values of purpose, inclusion and respect for the environment.

She is a dynamic ambassador, customer focused and responsive. She is able to quickly establish rapport and build trust, leading to positive relationships and outcomes. She has interfaced and managed at the senior level of management for over 15 years.

Andrea has served her community in many ways over the past number of years with most interests directly associated with family and faith. She has increased the representation of women in leadership roles, serving on Boards for the NB Power/IBEW workplace daycare, her Church, the Fredericton Therapeutic Riding Association and most recently, with the New Brunswick Association for Community Living (NBACL).

She has been married to her husband for 30 years and has two beautiful daughters. She likes to travel, ballroom dance and undertake home renovations and updates.
