

Andrew Jack

President - Willbros Canada
Calgary, AB

Andrew is an experienced executive with over 25 years at Senior Management level in the International Oil and Gas sector including General Management, Strategy, Commercial Business Development, Finance and Operations management. Starting with Deloitte (DH&S) Accountants, Andrew moved into the energy sector in 1990, and subsequently has lived and worked internationally, through Europe, Africa, Middle East, Far East and North America, establishing / acquiring and developing businesses globally.

Specialties: • General Management, Operational Development, Business Development, Strategic Planning, Market intelligence, Competitor Analysis, Relationship Development, Business change implementation and support.

- Business Plans, KPI's, promotional activities, Marketing, Branding, Customer Relationships, Pricing and Product positioning.
- Operations Management including Lean Strategies, establishment of national and international regional Services and Manufacturing operations.