

GRANT SIMONS

As President of RBC Automotive Finance, Grant Simons leads RBC's national automotive, RV and marine finance business. RBC's mission is to be the provider of choice for OEM's, dealers and clients across Canada. Since joining RBC in 2004, Grant has held positions as Head, Commercial Business Strategy, Regional Vice President, Retail Banking and Regional Vice President, Commercial Banking.

Grant achieved his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Western Ontario, MBA in Finance and Strategy at Richard Ivey School of Business and Directors Education Program and University of Toronto - Rotman School of Management.

Grant has been a member of the Aboriginal Human Resource Council board of directors since 2013.