

Media Advisory

Canada's Top Inclusive Employers & Aboriginal Grads Meet in Saskatoon to Advance ROI

Thursday, April 25, 2013, Saskatoon - At Inclusion Works '13, a national Aboriginal employment/economic development event, employers-of-choice and 65 post-secondary First Nations, Métis and Inuit grads from across Canada will partner to advance the Aboriginal workforce and greater ROI (return on inclusion) for companies.

Meet • Hire • Inspire

- What: 5th annual Inclusion Works '13: Formula for Success is Canada's largest Indigenous inclusion event (Recruitment Fair, Management Learning, Trade Show)
- When: April 30 - May 1, 2013
- Where: TCU Place, 35 22nd Street, East, Saskatoon, SK
- Who: 450 delegates (national/international) representing industry, educational institutions, government, and the Aboriginal community
- Hosts: Aboriginal Human Resource Council (AHRC) and its Leadership Circle partners; over 80 national corporations/organizations

Keynote Lineup

- National Chief Shawn Atleo, Assembly of First Nations
- Peter Mansbridge, Chief Correspondent, CBC News
- Adam Beach, Actor
- Eric Newell, Retired CEO, Syncrude Canada Ltd.
- Ray Ahenakew, Advisor to President and Board of Governors, SK Indian Institute of Technologies
- Kelly J. Lendsay, President and CEO, AHRC
- Post-Secondary Aboriginal Grad Panel

Resources

- Inclusion Works '13 program (download the pdf) or visit <http://www.aboriginalhr.ca/en/inclusion13>
- OpEd: National Aboriginal Leader Supports Canada's Foreign Worker & Aboriginal Workforce
- Videos:
 - Inclusion Works '12 Post-Secondary Grad Video Interview
 - Inclusion Works '12 Video Recap

Media are invited to register at the event site, or contact:

Peggy Berndt
National Director, Communications
Aboriginal Human Resource Council
p: 604.598.2569 • m: 778.995.5053 • e: pberndt@aboriginalhr.ca • w: aboriginalhr.ca